

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.
OFFICIAL PAPER.

WOODLAND.
Saturday, July 30th, 1870.

BE CAREFUL.—It is said that the ink used on the last issue of three-cent postage stamps is very poisonous. Take care how you lick them.

EDITORIAL.—James P. Bowman, Esq., has been engaged for the editorial staff of the Sacramento Record. Mr. B. will be a valuable acquisition to the editorial corps of the Record.

WHEAT.—The market still keeps at about $1.00 in Woodland. F. S. Freeman received telegraphic advices yesterday afternoon quoting the San Francisco market at $1.75 per 100 lbs.

CONNECTION SEVERED.—Mr. Henry George, who has for several months past been connected with the Sacramento Reporter as its chief editor, severed his connection with that paper on the 27th instant.

NEW VOLUME.—The San Francisco Chronicle has entered upon its twelfth volume, and is represented to be in a very prosperous condition. The Chronicle is one of the most energetic and enterprising newspapers in the State.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY COMMITTEE.—Members of the County Committee will notice a call by the Chairman for a meeting of the Committee in Woodland, on Tuesday next at 2 o'clock, for the transaction of important business.

PORT SURVEYOR FOR VALLEJO.—Charles B. Porter, ex-Senator, and now editor of the Contra Costa Gazette, has been nominated as Surveyor at the Port of Vallejo. Mr. Porter is a gentleman every way fitted to fill the office.

APOLOGY.—A rush of job work the past two weeks, together with unavoidable absence of our entire force for a day, have necessarily detracted somewhat from the interest and amount of reading matter in the DEMOCRAT. We will endeavor to make it up hereafter.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—Dr. D. C. Rice, formerly of this city, and recently President of the California Pacific Railroad, says the Marysville Standard, is confined to his bed, at San Francisco, with consumption. His many friends fear he will never be able to leave his room again.

THE STATE PAPER.—The Solano Republic is down on the "Act to create a State paper." The State paper can defend itself. The Solano Democrat very truly says: "The Act creating it was passed against the protest of the Democratic press of the State, and under circumstances that do not entitle it to their kindly consideration."

THE LITTLE CORPORAL.—This best of all youth's and children's magazines is at hand for August, being No. 2 of Vol. 11, published by Sewell & Miller, Chicago, at one dollar per year. The new shape is a great improvement—regular magazine form—over the old style. Its contents are always good and suitable for the young folks. Improvement is sure to result from its perusal.

THE CROPS IN FRANCE.—The World of July 15th says: A private letter from a high authority in France assures us that, as a matter of fact, "the crops throughout the empire have failed," notwithstanding all the assertions of official personages to the contrary. The gravity of this circumstance in the present position of affairs need not be dwelt upon. It necessarily acts as a goad to war by making the prospects of peace more threatening at home than those of war abroad.

HON. JAS. A. JOHNSON.—The Homestead Champion, a new paper started in Washington, D. C., in the interest of the tolling millions, makes the following complimentary notice of our able and faithful Congressman: "In the present Congress there is perhaps no more earnest or more sincere friend of the industrious poor man than James A. Johnson, of California. His able speeches on the question of Chinese labor ought to be in the hands of every laborer in the land. The question of coolie importation and naturalization must be settled by those who hold the ballot, and, if not settled intelligently, the ballot will be of less importance in resisting despotism in the future. We will make copious extracts from Mr. Johnson's speeches in our next issue."

WHAT A VIRTUOUS PRESIDENT.—The New York Democrat says, Grant's itching palm must be a source of great chagrin to the really respectable portion of the Republican party. The latest project to buy him a $50,000 paid-up life insurance policy seemed the very height of mendacious perfidy, and fairly broke down the patience of his supporters. The New York Evening Post, a leading Radical paper made haste to denounce the report as a falsehood, and insisted that it had not a shadow of truth. But the Post, with characteristic honesty and true manliness, now retracts, and says: "It is reported to us, on what we believe to be trustworthy authority, that there is this foundation for the report that a paid-up policy for $50,000 was to be given to the President. It is said that General Horace Porter, one of the President's Secretaries, and Mr. James Wheeler, his brother-in-law, have been for some time soliciting subscriptions to this end; also, that in Philadelphia $10,000 were subscribed; and that in this city nearly a dozen subscriptions were obtained, and among them that of Collector Grinnell." Talk of robbing the cradle and the grave! This is a literal skinning of the dry bones of death. Oh, what a President!

THE ROCHESTER (N. Y.) EXPRESS.—Radical, comes out squarely for Fred Douglas for Congress. It says Douglas is the ablest and most widely known public man in his Congressional District.

THE SITUATION.

The attitude of the two belligerent European Powers still engrosses the attention of the general public. But little however has transpired since our last issue other than the rapid concentration of troops upon the Rhine frontier where the great battle must be fought. Like the low mutterings of thunder before a storm, come dim rumors of skirmishes and repelled reconnaissance. We had a report yesterday that the advanced guard of the hostile forces had met and that a terrible battle was on hand nor could any longer be delayed. We await the confirmation of the news with anxiety. Those thoroughly acquainted with the character of the French People will fully appreciate the position in which Napoleon has voluntarily placed himself. He stands the One-man Power in the Government of France, around him are watchful enemies noting every mistake and exhibiting it well magnified by the Thierses and the Rocheforts of the day. Several circumstances show that the Emperor has by no means decided on adopting the Cortez idea of destroying all means of retreat. People living under the walls of Paris have been notified that they must quit their homes, as the grounds are required for the encampment of troops and the planting of artillery. Added to this we have the appointment of Marshal D'Almeida (known by the Parisians as the Mob Butcher) to the command of the Department of Paris. These facts in connection with the well-known attempts to entirely stifle the peace sentiment, show conclusively that Napoleon comprehends the truth that a defeat in the field will bring, inevitably, a terrible uprising of the people that may possibly require "a little more grape" than he can spare from the field. In the matter of strength, the two nations are pretty evenly matched. France may probably have at the present moment a larger available force, but we incline to the belief that in the end the solid resources of Prussia will find preponderating. In France, events will prove the existence of a large peace element, and one in direct discord with the Administration. The Germans are traditionally fond of Die Federlind and madly enthusiastic over the realization of their long-cherished scheme of a consolidated Empire. Defeat with men like these makes them only the more determined and deadly. Much has been said of the superiority of arms—this is a matter that cannot be easily determined otherwise than by actual experiment on the battle-field. Chassepots vs. Needle-guns must soon come up for adjudication by actual conflict. A day or two since the Prussian Government brought to light a secret treaty proposed by France. The terms of the measure were unity of Prussia, guaranteed to France of the disputed Rhine frontier, also assistance in the acquisition of Luxembourg and Belgium. The publication of this document caused a terrible excitement in England, and preparations were made by the Government setting the nation on a war footing in readiness to meet any further treachery. Events seem to tend toward a general European war, which may be kindled any moment in some petty corner to spread over the whole continent.

Letter from Truckee.

Truckee, July 28th, 1870.
EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—Believing that a description of some of the wonders I have seen since last we met might be acceptable, I take my pen in hand to let you know something of the sights to be seen in the mountains. Upon application at the ticket office of the C. P. R. R. for a free pass, I was immediately supplied by the gentlemanly clerk, upon my paying $9. in gold coin. At the rapid rate (for a first class railroad) of about fourteen miles an hour I was whirled away to the "Summit House," 105 miles from Sacramento, and 7,000 feet above the level of the sea. Here I found a first class Hotel and a landlord that knows how to keep one, a species of Boniface seldom met with, and especially in the mountains; Cardwell, mine host of the Summit House, understands his business and fails not to make his guests feel themselves at home. Two ominous signs hung conspicuously out, that had quite a depressing effect upon your correspondent, "no credit," and "no bed secured until paid for," but some broiled chicken and bourbon soon revived my spirits.

During my stay at the Summit, upon an invitation from the landlord I visited the celebrated Ice Works of Messrs. Redding & Co. The Superintendent thereof took great pains to explain to me how the thing is done. Large iron pans about 18 inches deep are filled with the clear cold water of the lake, and numerous large fans propelled by steam thrust upon them around them so much chilly air, that the water is soon turned to ice, when the pans are hoisted on to a large platform and turned over, flaming fire being applied to the bottom sides of the pans heats them sufficiently to allow the ice to be removed, when it is cut up into blocks for shipment.

Reluctantly, but much to the gratification of Cardwell, we left the Summit for Donner Lake, a beautiful sheet of crystal water 33 miles long and from 10 to 15 miles wide, and full of fish. Mr. Polard the proprietor, and his wife exert themselves to make every one "happy and content," and succeeded in my case, here I found free boats, fishing lines and free fish; but lemons were two bits each. There is a fine road from Donner to Tahoe City by way of Truckee, and the ride was made more pleasant than ordinary by a fine shower, which laid the dust and made the air feel purer. A Trout Factory on the road from Truckee to Tahoe, California, notice: the "modus operandi" of manufacturing the fish at this place is as follows: A large male and female trout are placed in a molting tank, where a sausage cutter and ground to a pulp, this mass is then rolled and made into small globules about one quarter of an inch in diameter, these are placed in the hatching tank, where a stream of fresh water is kept constantly running over them; in a few days they come out trout, and after three years' careful attention and good feeding they are large enough for the table. The fish are here in separate vats and ponds from the spawn to three years old. I proposed a partnership to the proprietor, but he wanted some capital, and I was obliged to withdraw my proposition; but it is a big thing.

Tahoe City is a good place for the wealthy, and my purse was not of a length to justify me in making a very long stay; $4 a day for board, $2 an hour for boats, and lemons 25 cents, will not do in short order. I left for this city, a very dull place, and where they charge $2 for a night's lodging. I am going up again provided you can advance enough coin to your correspondent to pay mountain hotel bills. Yours as ever, S.

WHAT IT SIGNIFIES.

We do not in the South, says the Richmond Enquirer, appreciate fully the great victory in Oregon, which resulted in the election of a Democratic Governor and the other State officers, and a Legislature which secures the defeat of Mr. Williams, among the most ultra of the Radical members of the Senate. For a year past it has engaged the attention of the political circles at Washington, and all the patronage of the Department of the Government has been prodigally used to secure a Republican victory. Custom house postoffice, and other appropriations have been made by Congress without stint, with a view to the re-election of Williams, and the Federal appointments have all turned upon this single point. And yet, with all this against them, the Democratic party of Oregon has triumphed. Who can overestimate the importance of such a triumph? It is the face of such a powerful combination. It seems that, as the American Union, settled by Europeans, taught their motherland for seventy years the practice of constitutional liberty, so the slope of the great Pacific, peopled by settlers from the older States, will preserve a nucleus of political freedom, around which the citizens of the States may rally in their coming fight against Radical oppression, corruption and misrule. The Radicals beaten at Washington, under the very eyes of a Radical Congress and Radical heads of Departments, and in Oregon, where they had prepared for certain victory, will now begin to see that the people are moving, and that the days of their despotism are numbered. Roll on the ball.

United Ancient Order of Druids.

In our issue of last week we omitted to mention the promulgation of a general Order by the Noble Grand Arch, convening in Woodland such officers and members of the Grand Grove as could make it convenient to attend. Since that time notices and invitations have been forwarded to all of the Groves in this part of the State. It is to be regretted that the R. R. Co. found themselves unable to put on an extra train of cars on the occasion, as in that instance parties might leave their homes and return on the same day. As it is, however, delegations are expected from the different Groves on the 3 p. m. train, while the officers of the Grand Grove, numbering some thirty, are expected this morning evening. Apart from the gratification we feel at the rise in our town of as lively and energetic an institution as the Dodona Grove promises to be, we have cause for congratulation on the influx of the public spirited members of the Grand Grove, representing as they do the intelligence and enterprise of their respective abiding places. Coming hither fresh from city life, they cannot fail to perceive the evidences of thrift and prosperity that breath out from every corner of our busy little town, and the fame of Woodland will be thrown abroad in every part of the State. This is the history of the rise of every prosperous town or city of California—solid resources at the bottom, with live, energetic men, infusing vitality into the sluggish channels of trade by their restless endeavors in social and business circles. Since the commencement of the organization of the Order of Druids, quite an amount of curiosity has been excited as to the origin, progress and object of the Order. To satisfy the public so far as we are able, we append herewith the preamble to the Constitution, furnished by a member:

"The recognized objects and influencing principles of the United Ancient Order of Druids are the diffusion of social and intellectual intercourse among all its members, the establishment of a system of general philanthropy and benevolence, by providing for the sick and distressed and the instruction of its deceased members, throughout the United Ancient Order, partisan politics and religion of a sectarian character are utterly banished from the Grove Room, the only qualification necessary being a belief in a Supreme Being."

Liberal sick and death benefits are given. The Order in this town has grown at a rapid rate, and a single member some two weeks since, it now numbers about sixty—proof alike of the popularity of the admirable principles underlying the Society, and of the energy and tact of its founder. For its past history we refer to a small sketch on our first page entitled "Druidical Priesthood." In the future, judge by the long array of solid, energetic names to be found upon its roll, must be highly prosperous and a lasting benefit, not only to several individuals, but directly concerned, but to the town generally. The bills posted about the county will show the time of meeting. The public will do well to take advantage of the opportunity given to witness the impressive ceremonies of an Institution and Installation. The Grand Grove of this State has justly gained the reputation of presenting a spectacle as any body in the United States.

FIREMEN'S MEETING.—We are glad to find that there are a few citizens in this place who are determined to keep things until a fire company of some kind is organized. At a meeting of citizens on Tuesday evening last a Committee consisting of M. Snider, A. W. Jackson and Martin Steinmetz was appointed with authority to purchase truck, hooks and ladders, etc., for a Hook and Ladder Company. This is a good move, and we hope it will be followed up soon by the organization of an engine company and the purchase of a fire engine. Before this is done, however, a fire supply must be obtained by some means, as an engine, with ever so good a company, would be useless without a better water supply than we now have.

FIRE.—On Monday evening last the house occupied by H. C. Burnett, Esq., was completely destroyed by fire. It occurred about eleven o'clock, after the family had retired, and the flames had made such headway before being discovered that it was impossible, with the facilities at hand, to stay their progress. Mr. Burnett estimates his loss in furniture, clothing, etc., at about four hundred dollars. The house was probably worth about the same amount and owned by the Burnett Company. This is a good move, and we hope it will be followed up soon by the organization of an engine company and the purchase of a fire engine. Before this is done, however, a fire supply must be obtained by some means, as an engine, with ever so good a company, would be useless without a better water supply than we now have.

PRINTING OFFICE SOLD OUT.—On Saturday last the office of the defunct Davisville Advertiser was sold under the Sheriff's hammer to satisfy a claim for the purchase money, held by Messrs. Finkler & Co., of San Francisco. Over one-half of the type was purchased by the proprietor of this paper and has been added to the Yolo Democrat's stock. The Davisville Advertiser was a lively little town, but it is not large enough to support a newspaper.

EXHIBITION OF VENTRILOQUISM, ETC. Wade's Grand Exhibition of Ventriloquism and Moving Figures is advertised for Saturday evening in Washington Hall. The exhibition is said to be very good, and as the proprietor has the patronage of a sympathizing public. The exhibition will be at Knight's Landing to-morrow evening.

NARROW ESCAPE.—A little daughter of G. M. Eaton, was knocked down by a team as she was crossing the street on Wednesday evening and narrowly escaped being run over. She was lying stunned and of course terribly frightened, but next day was running around again apparently all right.

THEATRICAL.

Since our last Mr. Beatty's troupe has played two nights at Knight's Landing and one at Cacheville, to the delight of those who were so fortunate as to be present. On Wednesday evening they again appeared in Woodland in the play of "The Streets of New York," which was in the main well executed and was thoroughly enjoyed by the respectable audience present. On Thursday evening, instead of the foregoing, which was advertised for that occasion, was presented "Uncle Tom's Cabin" to a pretty fair house. It was well rendered, according to H. B. S. and whatever may be said of the work upon which the play is based, the acting was well done and life-like, so far as we could judge. The troupe played "The Streets of New York" at Knight's Landing last night, where they go to Colusa, Marysville, Chico and other places, appearing in Woodland again the latter part of next week in the most exciting of plays "Under the Gaslight."

PULMONARY

SYRUP.

Believing that every man should be held personally responsible for whatever he offers to the public as an antidote for any existing evil, and that no honest man can, for the sake of gain, offer a remedy which may prove an injury, we shall say no more than we believe to be strictly true, and easily proved, in relation to the merits of

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

We have known it for many years, and it is a remedy for all Pulmonary Complaints. It has been given to a great number of persons, old and young, male and female, and has been truly said that rarely, if ever, was known a single instance in which it has not effected a speedy cure of the most violent cold or cough, and in case of Asthma, whooping-cough, sore throat, or any affection of the throat or lungs, we have yet to hear of an instance in which it has not afforded entire satisfaction. We do not pretend to say that

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

Is a remedy for "all the ills that flesh is heir to," but we do say that, in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, it has been found to be a pleasant and effective remedy for the most violent cold, long-neglected cough, sore throat, asthma, whooping-cough, or any affection of the throat or lungs arising, as almost all such complaints do, from what is at first considered nothing but a "slight cold"—the neglected sequel of which, if not promptly treated, leads to Prominent, however, among the ills thus engendered, is that of Consumption, for which it is said there is no remedy, and perhaps there is not. But if

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

Which we so strongly recommend, be a remedy for such complaints as we have mentioned, it will effect what we have said the average of the human race, CONSUMPTION! We answer, it will be to afford victims long and painful, this doing, refreshing sleep is sure to follow, and in its train, increase of strength, brighter eye, more cheerful countenance, and, why not a restoration to health? CURE IT! CURE IT! While it is yet what you call a "slight cold," and you will have less occasion to seek a remedy for any of the complaints it so sure to follow from it when it is neglected. Cure it in your children, instead of allowing them to relapse to their beds night after night with a "slight cold," from which, after every family has had sad experience, they too often rise with headache, sore throat, or fever.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

The use of which is synonymous with speedy relief and cure. Consumptions, by the way, are cured by all Druggists.

Newell's Pulmonary Syrup.

Should be resorted to on the slightest indication of a cough, cold or asthma.

THE YOLO DEMOCRAT.

Two laboring men of Madrid are forming into public gatherings.

A LAD crawled into a sugar hogshead and his first exclamation was "O how a thousand times better!"

Under the Army Reduction bill the 7th of the General of the Army is $17,700; that of the Lieutenant-General is $11,000.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY boasts of an immense cranberry marsh, yielding one hundred thousand bushels in a single crop.

All efforts to make hay by daylight have failed; but it is discovered that wild oats can be sown under its benign and cheerful rays.

An historic individual, who has heard a good deal about the "theatre of war," suggests that the back seas must be very desirable.

There is said to be nineteen candidates for the Republican gubernatorial nomination in Pennsylvania, and all making a desperate fight.

The New York Tribune begs Congress to "have done with reconstruction, and give the South time to recuperate and become quiet."

FRANCE has a total war force of 1,350,000 men, and Prussia has 1,200,000. These powers have each 300,000 men ready for immediate service.

NEW YORK, July 20.—The total number of deaths by sun-stroke reported yesterday was thirty-five.

THE re-imposition of the Income Tax says the New York Tribune, "will kill the Republican party." The effect would be fatal if it were possible to kill a corpse.

By a curious coincidence, five names on one page (four consecutively) in the Norwich, Conn., City Directory for 1870, read Black Thomas, Slow George, Sly John, Small Nathan, and Smart Mary.

A HORTICULTURIST advertised that he would supply all kinds of seeds and plants. Some were sent an order for one package of mustard-seed, and a dozen of mince-pie plants, which he filled by sending one dozen hens' eggs and a small dog.

LAWYER C. (entering the office of his friend, Dr. M., and speaking in a hoarse whisper) said: "I've got such a cold this morning that I can't speak the truth." Dr. M. replied: "Well, I'm glad it's nothing that will interfere with your business."

A TOWNSEND writes: There is no friend to a journalist like an enemy. The meaner the attack the more irresistibly it comes to benefit. William Cobbett once said: "Every man who brings me a thought, two new friends and five new subscribers."

A MARRIAGE editor says: A man who is owing us a little bill will be paid last week and a man who is owing us a little bill will be paid last week.

THERE is nothing purer than honesty; nothing sweeter than charity; nothing warmer than love; nothing richer than wisdom; nothing higher than virtue; and nothing more beautiful than faith. These united in one mind, form the purest, richest, sweetest, the brightest, and most steadfast happiness.

CLINTON, Iowa, has a female stranger who on going to Church found her seat occupied. As she sat down, however, she took the next seat back, and when the congregation rose to sing, she deliberately took the cushion from her own seat and placed it under herself. That woman will not be long without her rights.

FIFTEEN negroes married white women in Boston, last year, but there was no instance of a white man marrying a negroess. It takes the strong-minded woman to marry a negro.

Anna Dickinson used to address Fred Douglass as her "dear friend," which opened the eyes of all except those who were disposed to shut their eyes to the tender relations of Fred and the gentle Anna.—Day Book.

THE Philadelphia Ledger thinks the action of the Senate in voting to continue the "Income Tax" is one of the most deliberate acts of injustice ever practiced by a Legislative body.

Those who were instrumental in thus outraging public sentiment must prepare themselves for the responsibility they have assumed. Every man who stands out of the proceedings which led to this reconsideration, and the little force of the argument which influenced it, indicate that it was a piece of legislative strategy, and a parliamentary fraud on the part of the friends of this obnoxious measure.

THE DISAPPEARING BARRETT.—The Philadelphia Age says: "Recent indignations show that the Southern Methodist Church is rapidly losing its colored membership, there being about nineteen thousand members this year, against thirty-two thousand last year. This fact opens a wider field for comment than can be filled in the crowded columns of a daily journal. Is this lamentable fact to be attributed to the Radical party since emancipation tended to demoralize the colored race in this country? What say Christian men and women, in the light of such a fact as that in relation to the loss of negro communicants in one Christian Church? There is a moral side to this question which cannot be much longer obscured by history and partisan feeling. Christians will have to measure the results of their party attachments by the condition of the negroes, and not by Radical platitudes or the speeches of blustering and corrupt demagogues. In the meantime, will the negro race wander farther and farther from the needed restraints of religious organizations? If so, both the black man and the nation will suffer."

GRAPES STORY.—M. F. Stephenson, writing from Galveston, Texas, to the Southern Cultivator, says: "A Southerner grape vineyard at five years old will pay expenses; at ten years old will pay one thousand dollars per acre; at twenty years old two thousand; at thirty years old three thousand; and increasing for ages. The 'Lord Raleigh' vine, on Roanoke Island, N. C., was three inches in diameter in 1810, when his colony landed there—the first in North America. It now covers one and a half acres, and last year yielded forty barrels of wine—1,044 gallons, at $2 per gallon, $2,088. To European or Northern vintners this statement would be considered fabulous, but it can be seen every year; and in Tyrell county, North Carolina, there is one which is much more productive. This one last year made 63 barrels—2,520 gallons, at $2 per gallon, $5,040."

The 'Lord Raleigh' vine, on Roanoke Island, N. C., was three inches in diameter in 1810, when his colony landed there—the first in North America. It now covers one and a half acres, and last year yielded forty barrels of wine—1,044 gallons, at $2 per gallon, $2,088. To European or Northern vintners this statement would be considered fabulous, but it can be seen every year; and in Tyrell county, North Carolina, there is one which is much more productive. This one last year made 63 barrels—2,520 gallons, at $2 per gallon, $5,040."

THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S

WORLD RENOWNED

SEWING MACHINES!

Paris Exposition Universelle, 1867.

TWO GRAND PRIZES.

Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor.

To EXAS HOWE, JR., as the inventor; and Gold Medal for the best Sewing Machine!

The Highest Honors Ever Conferred for Sewing Machines.

This Machine has long been regarded as the standard of excellence, and has become celebrated all over the world.

The work done by these Machines is unsurpassed, and the finest material or the thickest cloth, with equal facility, and requiring no extra adjusting for uneven thickness or passing over seams; it turns, folds, and gathers, and is stronger than the fabric itself. To see it, call, look, handle, and you will be convinced.

It is a machine that is required in a family; and also for seamstresses and dressmakers. It will be found invaluable. They seldom, or never give any trouble in operating, and in a word, are the most satisfactory Sewing Machines in use.

Notwithstanding their great superiority, they are sold at prices as low as any other first-class Sewing Machines.

A Medal of Honor of Mr. Howe is embodied in the name of the Machine, without which none are genuine. Every purchaser of a Howe Sewing Machine, and if they are not sold in their vicinity, direct to the General Agent for the United States, etc., and do not purchase until you have thoroughly investigated these renowned machines.
